ENGLISH AND CLASSICAL
FEMALE INSTITUTE,
BRIDGEPORT, KENTUCKY.

THE first year's session of this Institute commences on Monday, 1st of SEPTEMBER, each year. The Course of Study embraces the Primary, Academic and Collegiate branches, with the modern Languages, and the mode of instruction is thorough and scientific. To raise the standard of Female education is the great aim of the teachers, and to them it is a privilege and a duty to see that the young ladies board in the family of the Principal, and are treated with paternal care and kindness—employing, at the same time, the advantages of a refined and classical intercourse.

The sessions will continue twenty weeks; but pupils are admitted at any time, and can leave at any time. No deduction made for absence save in cases of protracted illness. All bills to be paid in advance. Interest on all money advanced will be charged. We give full value received.

TERMS, PER SESSION:

For Boarders, including tuition in the English branches, board, fuel, lights and washing, $7.00 per day pupils—small children, 6.00

THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.

THOMAS M. GREEN, Editor.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 27, 1860.

To Members of the Legislature.

Extra copies of the Daily Commonwealth, put up in wrappers, ready for mailing, will be furnished at 2 cents each, and extra copies of the Weekly put up in wrappers at 4 cents each.

Gentlemen wishing extra copies of either the Daily or Weekly will please leave their orders beforehand at this office, or with JOHN M. TODD, in the H. R., or G. W. LEWIS, in the Senate, Reporters for this paper. Orders for the Weekly must be left by Saturday evening of each week, as it is published on Monday; and for the Daily the day before the publication of the paper which is wanted.

LUBRICATING COAL OIL.—We have heretofore recommended to all persons who have machinery of any kind, the use of the fine machine oil made from coal oil by the "Kaneva Cannel Coal Mining and Oil Manufacturing Company." We have been using it for about six months on our power presses and engine and find it greatly superior to any other kind of oil for machinery. We can also recommend it for fine machinery, such as sewing machines, having used it successfully on one in our family. We are pleased to be able to state that Mr. J. R. GRAHAM has now on hand a supply of this oil, and we would suggest to our friends to get a gallon or half gallon and try it, and if they do not find it very superior for machinery we will be much mistaken.

Mr. Graham also keeps on hand a large supply of lamps for burning coal oil, and also a supply of Superior burning oil made by this company. Our friends will find it to their interest to use coal oil, as being much cheaper than gas, and giving more light than anything in use, except gas.

Metropolitan Hall.

Our citizens and the strangers who now sojourn in our midst have been more than usually gratified by the performances during the past week.

The gifted and popular Mrs. JULIA DEAN HAYNE, assisted by Mr. WM. McFARLAND and the excellent company collected by Messrs. Drake and Chapman, have rendered several of the most charming pieces that belong to the stage to select and appreciative audiences.

On Wednesday night Romeo and Juliet was given with a vigor and chasteness in every department that called for the commendations of our most distinguished critics.

It is certainly a great treat to have the privilege of witnessing histrionic efforts of so high an order.

To night the lovely and accomplished tragedienne will take a benefit, and we trust she will have what she merits—a bumper. She will appear in two of her best characters, viz: as Mrs. Haller, in the ever popular play of "The Stranger," and as the Duchess de Torrenueva, in the superb comedy of "Faint Heart never won Fair Lady," assisted by Mr. McFarland in both pieces.

Mr. Glossbrenner, the Sergeant at Arms of the last Congress, holding over, has drawn from the York County (Pa.) Bank, the sum, in all, of $90,000, which he has advanced at the usual rate of interest, or without it, to members of the House. This has kept them somewhat easy, while the poor clerks of the Postoffice Department and other stipendiaries of the Government are shamed to the extent of twenty per cent in order to raise the money needed for their daily bread. This is rather hard upon the poor Postoffice clerks, and is the result of the neglect of Congress to provide for them at the last session. Meantime, as the York County Bank is not possessed of the resources of the old Bank of the United States, the members of Congress, before a Speaker is elected, may yet be driven to New York city for relief.

BURNED TO DEATH.—On Friday last, says the Georgetown Journal, a negro girl, some six or seven years of age, the property of Mr. James C. Lemon, was so badly burned by her clothes taking fire, that she died in about three hours after. The exact circumstances of the accident are not known, but it is supposed that during the brief absence of her mother from the kitchen, the child got to playing with the fire in the stove and by some means communicated the fire to her clothing, and on running to the door was unable to open it, whereupon she dropped down, unable to make any further effort to give an alarm. She was found a few moments after dreadfully burned and charred.

Kentucky State Agricultural Society.

The next State Fair.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the State Agricultural Society, will be held at Frankfort, on the 23rd day of February, 1860, for the purpose, among other business, of receiving from the several local Societies in the State, propositions for holding with them the Fifth Annual Kentucky State Fair. Parties making propositions will please accompany them by statements of the extent of their grounds, the size and character of their buildings, fences, &c., and the nature of the public thoroughfares by which they are reached.

At this meeting, many public documents will be ready for distribution to members of the State Society, and also for delivery to officers of County or District Societies for distribution among their members.

The Union Banquet—Kentucky's Greeting to Tennessee.

There have been but few occasions, says the Louisville Journal, in the history of our country and none in the annals of the West more important in its anticipated beneficial results than this cordial meeting and fraternization of the executive and legislative powers of the great States of Kentucky and Tennessee. An additional interest was imparted to the event by the presence of the State officers of Indiana and some of the municipal dignitaries of Nashville and Cincinnati, and a delegation from the Ohio Legislature.

The Banquet was served last night at the Masonic Hall, and seats were prepared for about seven hundred persons. The tables were elegantly served by Charles C. Ruffer, of the St. Charles Restaurant, and were liberally supplied with all the local delicacies of the season, and many from the East and North. At the late hour at which the festivities close it is impossible to do justice to the grand coup d'oeil of the scene, the delicious conviviality and the hearty fraternization of the guests from various States. Six tables, each capable of accommodating 100 persons, were ranged on the body of the hall, and two on the platform to seat about 100 more. Around the walls and pendent from the chandeliers festoons of evergreen decorated the place, and in front of the dais some choice flowers from a conservatory imparted a delicious fragrance to the air.

The guests were all ushered into a reception room, the south hall of the building, and punctually at 9 o'clock, to the inspiring music of a fine band, marched into the banquetting room and took their seats. We stationed ourselves on the platform to see the congregated wisdom of four or five States defile around the hall, and were struck with the general intellectual appearance and manly proportions of the guests. They are men to lend dignity to the councils, and offer protection to the soil of the country. When all had taken their positions, and before they were seated, the Rev. Mr. Hoyt addressed the throng of guests as follows:

Almighty God! we bow before Thy Throne; sovereign States before a sovereign God. August in the eyes of men, they humble themselves before Thee. They acknowledge that Thou art God, the King of angels and of men; they ask Thy blessing upon the millions they represent. O God, bless these States, bind them to together, give them peace and prosperity. O God, we come before Thee in an interest of no higher unknown. These States, living in the heart of this country and on the borders of that great line, unite their voices in supplicating Thy blessings on our country. God bless our country!—Save us from every dissension—from civil war and from blood, restore peace on our borders, and bring together this population in the bands of fraternal and uniting affection. O God, Thou God of Heaven, hear these earthly gods in these their prayers, for the sake of Thy loyal Son—Amen.

We will not attempt to describe the feu de joie of champagne corks which kept up a rattling like hail on a sky-light, or to write how keen a relish was given to the appetite over the luxuries of the table. But all things must have an end, and the human body being incapable of continual feeding on sardonic nutriment will finally give out, and so the feeding was brought to an end.

After the guests had discussed the viands, Judge Bullock arose and spoke as follows:

Bello-Cuiana of Tennessee and Kentucky.—On behalf of the Mayor and Council, and of the citizens of Louisville generally, I tender you a hearty welcome to our city. It gives us pleasure to see the chosen representatives of Tennessee and Kentucky united in the bonds of a common brotherhood around this festive board. At all times these noble States have been firmly united by the ties of interest, and blood, and affection, but they are now drawn still more closely together by the apprehension of a common danger.

It is natural that Tennessee and Kentucky should take counsel together in the present crisis of public affairs. They have a common interest in the past, the present, and the future. That interest is not susceptible of division. It is too precious to be subjected to the rules of cold and selfish calculation. There is nothing mean in the Union of Tennessee and Kentucky. It is as pure and unselfish as a sister's love. All that each holds most dear would lose more than half its value, if it could not be freely shared with the other. If there be a political union, which is so strongly cemented that it cannot be severed it is that which binds together the people of Tennessee and Kentucky.

We call this a Union festival. And it is an occasion of more than ordinary interest. Kentucky and Tennessee are here to renew the pledge of mutual confidence and of earnest heartfelt devotion to the American Union. The Executive and Legislative authorities of both States are here, and as if by a common impulse are in joint session and in Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union. Who can doubt their joint unanimous action in obedience to the wishes of their enlightened and patriotic constituents? The representatives of both these States, and of all the States in this glorious confederacy, can have no wiser or nobler rule of action than that contained in Kentucky's motto stamped upon her broad seal by the founders of the State, as an ever enduring precept and motto for their sons, "United we stand, divided we fall."

It has been truly said that the American Union is the principle of the national life, and its dissolution would be national death. But may we not cherish the hope that what is here exhibited in the close and intimate alliance of Tennessee and Kentucky is only typical of our glorious national Union? May we not indulge the inspiring hope that the Republic is safe, safe from the assaults of fact, safe from the influence of sectional animosity, safe from the incursions of bigotry, fanaticism, and crime, safe in the love and confidence of a virtuous, united, and enlightened people.

I will detain you no longer. Permit me to read the following sentiment:

Tennessee.—In this national crisis she will cheerfully in her heart of hearts the noble sentiment of her patriot hero: "The Union it must be preserved."

The following are the other regular toasts:

Kentucky.—If treason to the Union shall prevail in the North or in the South, our noble State will stand between the two sections as stood the people of old between the living and the dead, to stay the progress of the pestilence.

(Responded to by the Governor of Kentucky.)

Tennessee and Kentucky.—Twin sisters, bound together in an indissoluble embrace by geographical position, identity of interests, of habits, of manners, and pursued by a heartfelt devotion to our glorious National Union.

The Federal Constitution.—Its inviolability the only permanent guarantee for the preservation of the Union, and fidelity to its precepts the true test of patriotism.

Indiana.—Our neighbor and sister; she permits no irrepressible conflict of prejudice to silence her sense of social and political duty. (Responded to by Mr. Willard, of Indiana.)

The Union loving Men of the North.—We hail with pleasure and reciprocate their manifestations of patriotic regard, and we hope for their noble vindication of the Constitutional rights of the South.

(Responded to by a member of Tennessee and one from Kentucky.)

The City of Nashville.—Louisville extends to her the hand of a loving sister, and welcome her to this festive board.

The Louisville and Nashville Railroad.—A new bond of union between two States already connected by the closest ties. The successful completion of this great work amply attests the ability and fidelity of those to whom it was confided.

The State of Ohio.—One of the giants of the American Confederacy. We tender her Representatives a hearty welcome to this Union Festival.

Mayor Crawford and Nat. Wolfe occupied the center of the platform, supporting Lieut. Gov. Newman, of Tennessee, on the right, and Gov. Magoffin, of Kentucky, on the left. Gov. Willard, of Indiana, Lieut. Gov. Porter, of Kentucky, Hon. James Guthrie, Messrs. Garfield, Barrett and others, of Ohio, Judges Bullock and Nicholas, with the various committees, had seats of honor appropriated to them.

Lieut. Gov. Newman responded to the toast to Tennessee, Gov. Magoffin spoke for Kentucky, and Gov. Willard for Indiana. Eloquent speeches were delivered by Mr. Whitaker, Speaker of the Tennessee House; Lieut. Gov. Porter, of Kentucky; Mr. Payne, of the Tennessee Senate; Col. Hodge, of Kentucky; Messrs. Garfield and Barrett, of Ohio. After the two last gentlemen had spoken, Mr. Flagg, of Cincinnati, presented the invitation of that city to Kentucky and all her guests to visit the commercial metropolis of Ohio. Gov. Meriwether, on behalf of the Executive and Legislature of Kentucky, accepted the invitation, and Lieut. Gov. Newman, of Tennessee, also expressed the willingness of those he represented to extend their visit to Columbus.

Mr. Stokes, of the Tennessee Legislature, made a most eloquent speech, and was followed by Hon. John Young Brown and Hon. James Guthrie; after which the meeting adjourned.

The facilities for reporting were much interrupted by the crowding together of the guests, as soon as the speaking commenced. It is impossible to over-estimate the value of this meeting, or to depict the enthusiasm and abiding love of the Union which was exhibited.

We believe that an impulse was given yesterday to a great movement in favor of a healthy conservatism, which will sweep over the land and drive from its face every disunionist of the South and every fanatic of the North. The great Western States—the heart of the confederacy—spoken in Tennessee, Ohio, and Indiana—have spoken in unmistakable terms; a voice has gone up from the hallowed graves of Ashland and the Hermitage; faction has been disarmed, and but one spirit will in future animate the legions of these States, and that spirit will re-echo in thundering tones: "The Union, it must and shall be preserved!" The representative men of four great States have proclaimed their undying devotion to the Constitution, as it was bequeathed to us by our fathers, and have branded as a traitor every man who would lay his iniquitous hands upon that ark of our civil and religious liberties.

We anticipated great results from this meeting, and now, as we write, with our soul still thrilled by the impassioned eloquence and stirred by the noble sentiments uttered, we are the more fully convinced that it is well that the great States met in council together, and that patriotism so effectively disarmed faction, and showed the loyalty of the great American heart to the laws and the Constitution.

God grant that our hopes may be realized, and that the twenty-fourth of January may ever hereafter be remembered as the day when the West resolved that the discord between the North and South should be arrested, and that the angry waves of sectionalism should be allayed.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A fatal accident occurred near DeGarr's mill, one mile north of this place, on Saturday last, says the Georgetown Journal, by which a negro boy, some 12 years old, the property of Mr. Thomas Smart, was instantly killed. Mr. Smart's wagon, with a tremendous sawlog, hauled by six mules and driven by his overseer, was approaching the mill, and when about to make a turn in the road, the overseer called to the boy, who was sitting on the log, and told him to jump off and let down the bars. The boy remarked that he would, but he presumed, thought he would wait until the turn had been made, in making which, however, the wagon and log capsized, the log falling directly across the boy's breast, crushing and killing him immediately.

The statistics of consumption show that one fifth of all the deaths in this country are due to that insidious and fatal disease. This is in a great measure owing to the neglect with which it is treated in its earlier stages. "It is but a slight cough," the patient says; "I have caught cold some way; but it will pass off in a few days."

Fatal mistake! Weeks and months roll on; the "slight cough" increases, the face grows thinner, the voice weaker, and at last the fatal hectic flush lights up the cheek; then the alarm patient flies from doctor to doctor, in the vain hope of relief, which he can never have. Two months earlier, and a single bottle of John Bull's Compound Pectoral of Wild Cherry would have saved him.

Be warned then in time, ye who are suffering with "slight coughs," and use the remedy before it is too late.

Colonization Meeting.

The Kentucky State Colonization Society will hold its Annual Meeting, on the 28th of January, 1860, in the Representative Chamber, at 7 o'clock, P. M. The public are invited to attend. The annual address will be delivered by the Hon. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS, of Paris, Ky.

MARRIED.

In this city, on the 24th inst., by the Rev. J. E. Thayer, Mr. Geo. GEsseman and Miss Kate W. Miller.

Near Mobile, Ala., on the 15th of November, by the Rev. Mr. Andrews, Mr. ROBERT TANNER, of Rapides Parish, La., and Miss ANNA ADELIA, daughter of Col. Wm. Tanner.

DIED.

On the 18th inst., at the plantation of Mrs. Humphreys, in Louisiana, of malignant sore throat, BELLE, third daughter of Joseph and Sarah Humphreys, of Sumner Forest, Woodford county, Ky.

At the same place, on the 20th inst., of the same disease, MARY H., only daughter of A. John Alexander, Esq., of Sherwood, Woodford county, Ky.

Thus have two more beautiful children of this one family faded from the arms of their affectionate friends, and death, which had marked them for his own, has followed them to that gentle clime, where they had been taken in the vain hope of escaping the fell destroyer. It is but a few weeks since we recorded the death of one little one of the flock at Waverly, and now two more lovely buds have been plucked from its bosom, to bloom, fadeless and pure, in those "mansions not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens."

WATER WHEELS.

REYNOLDS PATENT CONCENTRAL PRESSURE WATER WHEEL.

THE undersigned, manufacturer of the above named Water Wheels, are prepared with an assortment of every variety of patterns to accommodate every variety of head (see letters below) power, and quantity of water, and are enabled to construct Wheels to suit exactly the circumstances of every location.

The Water Wheels are simple, cheap, durable, powerful, economical in the use of water, not retarded by back-water, nor liable to obstruction, are easily set up, and occupy but little room, and for perfection of finish are superior to any.

Wheels are guaranteed in every instance not to fall short of our representations, in most cases they exceed them.

Parties desiring Wheels or information, will please address us, stating their head of water and the power desired, or the kind and quantity of machinery to be propelled, and we will give prompt attention.

TALCOTT & UNDERHILL,
Oswego, N. Y.

CAPITOL HOTEL, Frankfort Ky. / Dec. 10, 1859.

THIS is to certify that Samuel Reynolds of Oswego, New York, has put into my mill, known as the Cove Mill near this place, one of his Concentral Pressure Water Wheels. It is one foot in diameter and takes the place of a 25 foot Overshot Wheel. With this Overshot Wheel I can grind seven and one half bushels of wheat to the hour with a full head of water, and with his Reynolds Wheel today attached to same burrs, which are 30 inches in diameter, I ground ten and nine tenths bushels of wheat to the hour, and the water used to run, it filled the buckets on the Overshot Wheel two third full.

Mr. Reynolds put the Wheel in with the understanding that it did not grind as much as the Overshot with the same water he was to take it out and charge nothing for his trouble.

I am satisfied that it will grind one third more to the bushel than the Overshot Wheel.

I have been acquainted with Mr. Reynolds about six months and will guarantee that his Wheel will give more power than he claims for it. I therefore command him to the public.

Signed,
R. C. STEELE.

GREAT CROSBY, Scott Co. Ky. / December 18, 1859.

Messrs. Talcott & Underhill, Oswego, N. Y.

Gentlemen: I take pleasure in saying to you that the Water Wheel, one foot in diameter (double the size) purchased of Mr. Samuel Reynolds, the inventor, is now in operation and is giving me entire satisfaction, coming fully up to what it was recommended to do. My brood with it was at a very low stage of water, one third and a half feet head. It gave full power, for our run 4 1/2 bushels, Bolts, Smit Mill, &c., with the gate 3/4 open. When the water rose so as to give me five feet head I have full run of burrs, doing full work, so that under the full head (six feet) I have a surplus of power.

I have run in back water to the depth of four feet with no perceptible loss of power. This Wheel is put in place of a 25 foot Overshot Wheel, and it does the same amount of work that it did, therefore take pleasure in paying you for believing that I now have a wheel that will last 20 years, perhaps 30 years.

Signed,
Very truly yours,
W. H. McDONALD.

MILLINERY

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blustering puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in time past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the function of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be an enduring as time itself. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that healthy energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomachic derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their care is so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other laxatives, and those who receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhoea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superinduced in fevers, persons of southern occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. C. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South America, and Germany.

For sale by all Druggists in FRANKFORT, Kentucky, 1859-19.

SECOND VOLUME OF THE KENTUCKY FARMER.

Only One Dollar Per Annum!!

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!!!

The First Volume of the "KENTUCKY FARMER" closed with the June number, and the Second Volume will commence in July. We promised a year ago to try and give to the Agriculturists and Stock Raisers of Kentucky a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every one of its patrons: Have we redeemed that pledge? Have we given you a fair equivalent for THE DOLLAR which was paid for the KENTUCKY FARMER? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscriptions, and try and send us one or more additional names for the SECOND VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume have about paid the expenses of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would publish ONE VOLUME whether we obtained a sufficient amount to pay its expenses or not. The publication of the June number has redeemed that pledge. Shall we have the kind and continued support of its present patrons, together with their aid in extending its circulation? If so, we promise to do everything in our power to make the paper worthy of a generous Kentucky public.

The "KENTUCKY FARMER" will still be published monthly, in its present form of sixteen large quarto pages, for ONE DOLLAR per annum, payable in advance. As the small amount charged for the paper will not justify the trouble and expense of collecting subscriptions, no paper will be forwarded unless paid for in advance.

Subscriptions can be forwarded to us by mail, at our risk. Letters addressed to us need not be registered. Simply address to A. G. HODGES, Frankfort, Ky.

M. D. & W. H. M'HENRY,

ATTORNEYS AND LAND AGENTS,

DES MOINES, IOWA.

PROPOSE to practice in the various Courts of Polk county, and in the Supreme Court of Iowa, and the United States District Court.

They have also established a General Agency for the transaction of all manner of business connected with Land Titles.

They will enter Lands in Kansas and Nebraska Territories, if an amount sufficient to justify a visit to that country is offered.

The Senior partner having been engaged extensively in the business of the law in the Courts of Kentucky for nearly thirty years, and the Junior having been engaged in the land business in Iowa for eight years past, during which time he has made actual survey of a large portion of Polk and adjoining counties, they feel confident they will be able to render a satisfactory account of all business entrusted to them.

They will enter Land with Land Warrants or Money, and sell lands on Commission, upon a careful investigation of title. Persons wishing to settle in the State can find desirable farms and city property for sale, by calling on them at their office in Sherman's Building, corner of Third Street and Court Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa.

HEALTH RESTORED! DR. MOTT'S Chalybeate Pills.

An aperient and stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen, of high medicinal utility and extraordinary efficacy in each of the following complaints, viz: DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, DYSPPEPSIA, DIARRHÆA, CONSTIPATION, SCROFULA, SALT RHEUM, RUMY, JAUNDICE, LIVER COMPLAINTS, RHEUMATISM, MERCURIAL CONSEQUENCES, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, NEURALGIA, ORIGIN OF HEADACHES, FEMALE WEAKNESS, MENSTRUATION, WHITE CHLOROSIS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, ROUGHNESS OF THE SKIN, &c.

The IRON being absorbed by the system, thus circulating through the whole system, part of the body can escape their truly wonderful influence.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can for a moment be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in every most every conceivable case, for all cases of female debility (dyspepsia, chlorosis, &c.) its effects are delightfully renovating. No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, large, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for all kinds of cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use. As a grand stomachic and general restorative, it has no superior and no substitute.

Put up in neat metal boxes containing 24 pills, price 25 cents per box. For sale by all druggists generally. Will be sent free on any address on receipt of the price.

Testimonials of the HORACE WATERS Pianos and Melodeons.

"The Piano came to hand, and in first rate order. It is a beautiful instrument and no mistake."—J. L. WALKER, Philadelphia.

John Hewitt, of Carthage, New York, who has had one of the Horace Waters Pianos, writes as follows: "I found it mine, and was very much pleased for her. She likes the one you sold me in December, 1856. My Piano is becoming popular in this place, and I think it can take the place of any more; they will be more popular than any other make."

"We have two of Waters' Pianos in use in our Seminary, one of which has been severely tested for three years, and we can testify to the good quality of the instrument."—WOOD & GORDON, Mount Carroll, Ill.

"H. Waters, Esq.—Dear Sir: Having used one of your Piano for two years past, I have found it a very superior instrument."—ALFRED GRAY, New York.

"The Piano I received from you continues to give satisfaction. I regard it as one of the best instruments in the place."—JAMES L. CLARK, Charleston, Va.

"The Melodeon has safely arrived. I feel obliged to you for the liberal discount, and will call on you in these parts."—REV. J. M. MCCORMICK, Yarmouth, N. S.

"The Piano was duly received. It came in excellent condition, and is very much admired by my numerous family. Accept my thanks for your promptness."—HONOR. COOPER, Warrenham, Bradford Co., Pa.

"Your Piano pleases well. It is the best one in our country."—T. A. LATHAM, Campbellton, Pa.

"We are very much obliged to you for having sent such a fine instrument for $250, and we shall take pains to recommend it."—BRANK, Hutz & Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

"The Horace Waters Pianos are known as among the very best. We are enabled to speak of these instruments with confidence, from personal knowledge of their excellent tone and durable quality."—Y. F. CRAWFORD.

"We can speak of the merits of the Horace Waters Pianos, from personal knowledge, as being of the very best quality."—CHRISTIAN INTELLIGENCER.

"Nothing at the State Fair displayed greater excellence in any department than the Horace Waters Pianos."—CHICKADEE.

"The Horace Waters Pianos are built of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material. We have no doubt that buyers can do as well, perhaps better, at this than at any other house in the Union."—ADVOCATE AND JOURNAL.

"The Horace Waters Pianos challenge comparison with the finest made anywhere in the country."—HON. JOURNAL.

"Horace Waters Piano Fortes are of full, rich, and sweet tone, and powerful."—N. Y. Medical Record.

"Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Music and of Pianos to be found in the United States, and we urge our Southern and Western friends to call on him whenever they go to New York."—Graham's Magazine.
